

PRESS RELEASE

INTERIM REPORT ON CANDIDATES BY POLITICAL PARTIES

IMMEDIATE RELEASE: May 20, 2017: The Commission wishes to share with the public the interim report on proposed candidates for the August 2017 General Election as submitted by various political parties and independent candidates.

Except for independent candidates, the list was generated by the Candidate Registration Management System (CRMS) which allowed political parties to submit their candidates on-line. The last date of submission was on May 16, 2017.

Political Parties and independent candidates are encouraged to review the list and provide any clarification and correction where required. The list may be found on the IEBC’s website.

We wish to remind political parties that they have until tomorrow 21 May 2017, to provide missing information of candidates as communicated earlier.

OBSERVATIONS

- 1- Following a dispute over Chama Cha Uzalendo list, the Commission has excluded the same from this interim report until further notice.
- 2- Most presidential and gubernatorial candidates are yet to submit names of their respective running mates.
- 3- Some candidates were presented as belonging to more than one party.
- 4- Some of the candidates may not be on the list owing to on-going disputes in court.

ACCESS TO THE CANDIDATE REGISTRATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

In order to enhance operational efficiency in making corrections to the lists submitted by political parties, the Commission will allow political parties to access the platform between now and end of day on May 21, 2017.

The political party users can only perform the following functions.

- Edit existing records
- Upload pictures/portraits

They cannot however perform the following functions

- Delete a record/s
- Mass Upload of records
- Change/replace existing records

- Create a new record/s

The Commission shall provide an updated list once political parties and independent candidates submit information on required corrections.
